"People come to me because officers fail them," Siddharamaiah

Chief Minister Siddharamaiah listening to the complaints of the physically-challenged persons as District In-charge Minister Dr H.C. Mahadevappa, Health Minister U.T. Khader, MP Dhruvanarayan and others look on at the Janaspandana programme held at Government Guest House in city this morning.

Mysuru, May 20 (RK&NNN)- Chief Minister Siddharamaiah, addressing the officers of the district before the start of the Janaspandana, programme here this morning, regretted that such mass contact programmes had become inevitable as the officers concerned do not discharge their duties to the expectations of the people. The CM who arrived in city drove straight to the Government Guest House from the Helipad and as he got ready to receive the grievances from the people, said, "It is quite some time that Janaspandana was held in Mysuru. Whenever I come to this City, people gather in large numbers with their complaints in front of my house. They would not have come to me at all, if you had responded to their problems."

"We are both public servants. Just taking bribes alone is not corruption. It is worse if you do not attend to the people's problems on time or delay or make them run a hundred times to get their job done, is worse form of corruption," he said.

CM says bribe alone is not corruption. Making people visit Government office 100 times is worse form of corruption.

Rummaging rubbish unsung, unhonoured

Thanks to the dramatic move on demonetising currency of face value at Rs. 500 and Rs. 1,000 (November 8, 2016) causing unprecedented and unanticipated turmoil all over the country, Mysureans also getting a taste of cash-crunch, many hot topics such as pig menace, straying dogs, wandering cattle on the streets of the city and so on that generated high-decibel public outcry, apart from hogging space of the dailies of all hues, got pushed into oblivion. Subsequently, toilet-centric talk sucked into its whirlpool as it were and citizens with diverse backgrounds, including the intelligentsia, openly debating the issue of open defecation with vociferous calls for arresting the land's time-honoured practice both in urban spaces and rural regions. While these aforementioned issues are in cold storage for now, the fascinating Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan (Clean India Mission) is still kept alive in fits and jerks. There is no telling what more will descend on the country's diaspora in days ahead.

Before running out of space available in this column (not exceeding 500 words) one has to hasten to bring up the ongoing game of plastic with three (may be four) players in the act namely a) the Civic Body (of Mysuru in particular), b) the traders with concealed stocks of the banned carry bags, c) the manufacturers of the prohibited product and d) the citizens with most of them sitting on the fence as it were, happily taking home their daily needs of perishables in plastic bags. The game has not yet reached the conclusive stage even as the fifth player, the rag-picker, is at his work earning some pennies.

Authorities of the civic body are not exactly trailing in addressing the menace of plastic materials even as their fervent appeals to the city's residents focussing on segregating plastic from the rest of the mass of residue, with less than limited success. Even as the city's residents, barring a small section of them, have not extended their hands of help to the civic body, the onerous and hazardous task of picking discarded materials at great risk of getting hurt and catching deadly infections has fallen on the lap of the hapless rag-pickers. A report based on a field study of their daily routine, published in a section of the press, says that a rag-picker working for upto 14 hours a day can make a living by earning about Rs. 200. The study has revealed that while sifting the heap of rubbish, the rag-pickers come into contact with highly objectionable matter such as human excreta in polythene, pieces of glass, used syringes, nails, rotting food and so on.

The Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan continues to be flashed in the dailies with individuals who matter in society figuring in the photos, but has any reader of whichever daily seen a photo of a rag-picker in the act? What is not realised by citizens at large is that most rag-pickers are destitute migrants, mostly from poor regions of the country. Unsung, unhonoured and unpaid, they continue ungrudingly to rummage rubbish from dawn to dusk day after day.

THE POINTING FINGER: A Zen teacher's dog loved his evening romp with his master. The dog would bound ahead to fetch a stick, then run back, wag his tail, and wait for the next game. On this particular evening, the teacher invited one of his brightest students to join him — a boy so intelligent that he became troubled by the contradictions in Buddhist doctrine. "You must understand," said the teacher, "that words are only guideposts. Never let the words or symbols get in the way of truth. Here, I'll show you." With that the teacher called his happy dog. "Fetch me the moon," he said to his dog and pointed to the full moon. "Where is my dog looking?" asked the teacher of the bright pupil. "He's looking at your finger." "Exactly. Don't be like my dog. Don't confuse the pointing finger with the thing that is being pointed at. Every man fights his way through other men's words to find his own truth." — In The New Sunday Express.

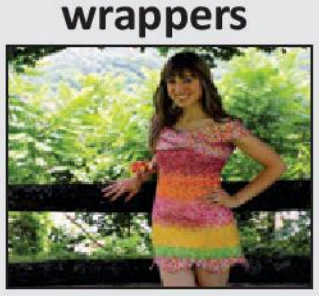
Dress in candy wrappers



Harrisburg: Making a dress out of waxed paper candy wrappers might sound silly to some people, but for Emily Seilhamer, of Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania, took half a decade to complete. It all started in college, when she met her husband Malachi, he offered her a pack of Starburst, at their first meet and kept bringing her candy on dates. At one point, Emily realised she could make something out of all the wrappers, and asked him to save them for her. So he would eat them and bring her grocery bags full of the colourful pieces of paper.

But collecting over 10,000 Starburst candy wrappers over nearly five years, was only part of the challenge. Seilhamer recalls spending hours folding all the wrappers in her college dorm room, while studying or watching TV. Every wrapper became a link in dozens of colourful chains that were eventually sewn together with elastic thread to create a beautiful dress.

Sues his Date for texting during movie

Texas: Brandon Vezmar, a 37-year-old man from Austin, Texas, has become an overnight celebrity after he decided to sue his first date for texting too much during a screening of Guardians of the Galaxy Vol.2. He is asking for $17.31, which is how much he paid for her ticket.

Brandon and 35-year-old Crystal met on online dating app Bumble and went on their first and only date on May 6. Vezmar bought two tickets for the 3D screening of Guardians of the Galaxy Vol.2, and he says everything was going good until 15 minutes into the movie, when his date took out her phone and started texting. At one point, it got too much for him to bear, and he asked the woman to either stop texting or go into the lobby of the theater. She left, and never came back, leaving without a ride home, as they had both arrived at the Barton Creek Square theater in her car. He later texted Crystal to ask for his money back, and when she refused to pay the $17.31 price of the ticket, he had no choice but to take her to court for it.

VOICE OF THE READER

When will the statue of former CM D. Devaraja Urs be installed?

Sir,

The Mysuru City Corporation Works Committee had approved a proposal to install a statue of late Chief Minister D. Devaraja Urs at the junction of D.D. Urs Road and JLB Road where the CITB wanted to create a Circle specially for the purpose. This was, if I remember right, in the month of August, 1987.

According to reports published then, the statue was to be provided by the D. Devaraja Urs Memorial Committee to be installed at the Circle. Simultaneously, the CITB had taken a decision to install the statue of the last Maharaja of Mysore Sri Jayachamarajendra Wadiyar at the same spot.

Now that the statue of Sri Jayachamarajendra Wadiyar has already been installed at the Hardinge Circle, will the MUDA or the MCC install the statue of Devaraja Urs at the junction of JLB Road and Devaraja Urs Road which is still available?

Probably, among all the Chief Ministers of Karnataka, it was only Devaraja Urs who had the longest stint in office for eight years and who had effectively implemented the Land Reforms Act, thereby providing land to the landless in a manner no other State in India could do. Not only this, it was Devaraja Urs, who gave voice and also positions in government office to the SC/ST of the State in a way that was not seen in any other State at that time.

Sadly, in the 1980 Parliamentary election, when he had formed his own party after breaking away from Indira Gandhi and fielded candidates, he could not get even one seat. Apparently, those who benefited from such a great political reformist did not support him. Kaliyuga !

I am sure if he had succeeded he would have surely brought in more beneficial reforms, reservations and helped the poor and the underprivileged to economically come up in life.

Late D. Devaraja Urs

But, that was not to be. Even Siddharamaiah could not do to SC/ST and the underprivileged what the political visionary Devaraja Urs could do in his very first five years. Siddharamaiah was doling out freebies like food items and frivolous 'bhagyas' which should only help them to lead a status-quo life without working for most of the days.

For these reasons, it would be appropriate to commemorate the memory of D. Devaraja Urs with a grand statue in Mysuru city, the district from where he hailed, before his 102nd birth anniversary on August 20, 2017.

It is unfortunate instead of being grateful to this man of vision, who has left a legacy that could not be matched by those who succeeded him, he has been treated unjustly and denied his rightful place among the political leaders of Karnataka. This statue in Mysuru would only be a token expression of a grateful people.

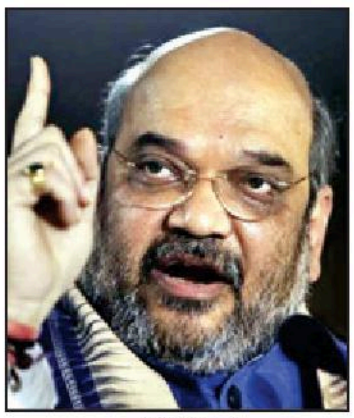
'Is there a taller leader than BSY who will bring the party to power? If so name him or shut up'— Amit Shah

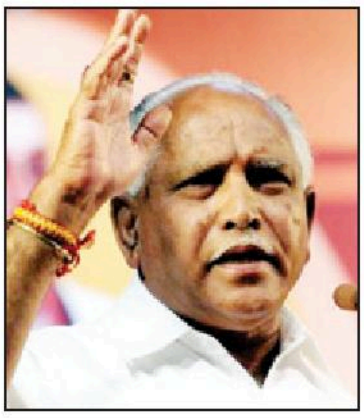
BJP National President loses patience on dissident activities; warns rebels of strict action

Bengaluru, May 20 (KMS& BCT) - In a strongly-worded message to quell dissident activities within the Karnataka BJP, the Party National President Amit Shah has asked the dissident leaders if there were any leaders bigger and capable than BJP State President B.S. Yeddyurappa (BSY), who could steer the party to victory in the 2018 Assembly elections.

Amit Shah has asked Yeddyurappa's critics, led by Leader of Opposition in the Legislative Council K.S. Eshwarappa, to either suggest a name of a mass leader who can overtake Yeddyurappa or stop criticising him (Yeddyurappa). "Mend your ways for the interests of the party," he told the rebel leaders, sources said.



Amit Shah



B.S. Yeddyurappa

According to party sources, Amit Shah's warning has hit the rebels hard and they are now showing unity in the party. "This warning has made rebel leaders to bury the differences and sport a united front and jointly go on a drought analysis across the State. Even Yeddyurappa has softened his stand and has allowed supporters of RSS National Organising Secretary Santhosh to work in the party office," said sources.

Sources said that Shah has lost patience with the open war within the BJP in a State where the party wants to win the Assembly elections in 2018 and bag most of the Lok Sabha seats a year later. He has told the State BJP that they must end the raging war for the BJP to be able to overtake Congress in 2018.

Yeddyurappa is BJP's Chief-Minister-in-waiting in Karnataka and Eshwarappa appears to have reconciled to the party projecting his rival as the Chief Ministerial candidate. His grouse is that after Yeddyurappa became the State BJP chief in April 2016, he became "arrogant" and ignored his supporters while filling up party posts.

Amit Shah has told the rebels that the Party High Command had conducted a survey a year back in Karnataka where it was found that the BJP would easily bag 150 seats under Yeddyurappa's leadership. "It is on this basis that the High Command arrived at 'Mission 150' and it was not just based on Yeddyurappa's claims," Shah reportedly told the State BJP leaders.

He further told them that due to the open fight between Eshwarappa and Yeddyurappa, the party's prospects had now declined to 80 or 90 seats as shown in the latest survey.

"The Party High Command has commissioned three surveys in one year and the results have not changed and this is due to the infighting in the party. People are fed up with the differences in the party and that will reflect in the 2018 results," Shah reportedly told the State leaders.

Shah has also said that he would visit Karnataka in the first week of August and speak to Eshwarappa and Yeddyurappa. He has also warned them that action will be taken against dissidents, sources added.

GST rates: Services to have 4 slabs

Education, healthcare exempted

New Delhi, May 20- The GST (Goods and Services Tax) Council yesterday finalised tax rates for services. Education and healthcare have been exempted from the GST regime. The long-awaited GST has been hailed as India's biggest tax overhaul since Independence in 1947.

"India has finalised four tax rates that will apply to services including telecoms, insurance, hotels and restaurants under a new sales tax which should be rolled out on July 1," Finance Minister Arun Jaitley said.

The tax rates will be 5, 12, 18 and 28 percent in line with those applying to goods. Telecoms and financial services will be taxed at a standard rate of 18 percent while transport services will be taxed at 5 percent and the tax rate on gold has not been finalised yet and the Council will meet again on June 3.

The new tax rates would affect everything from your restaurant visits, movie dates, visits to the salon and even your phone bills. Rail, air and road transport will fall in the 5 percent tax slab.

Non air-conditioned restaurants will attract a tax levy of 12 percent whereas air-conditioned restaurants will fall in the 18 percent tax bracket. Hotels with tariff between Rs. 2,500 and Rs. 5,000 will attract a GST of 18 percent, whereas hotels with tariff of above Rs. 5,000 will fall under the 28 percent tax slab. However, hotels with tariff under Rs. 1,000 are exempt from the GST regime.

The Council approved the tax rates for 1,211 items, of which 7 percent will be exempted, 14 percent will be in the 5 percent slab, 17 percent in the 12 percent category, 43 percent in the 18 percent segment, while 19 percent of goods will go into the top tax bracket of 28 percent. 81 percent items will attract tax of 18 percent or below, while 19 percent of items will be taxed at the highest rate of 28 percent.

Tiwari's death: Siddharamaiah seeks thorough probe

Anurag Tiwari

Bengaluru, May 20 (KMS)- Chief Minister Siddharamaiah yesterday urged his Uttar Pradesh counterpart Yogi Adityanath to order a thorough probe by an 'efficient agency' into the death of Karnataka cadre IAS officer Anurag Tiwari. In his letter to Adityanath, Siddharamaiah said that the circumstances leading to Tiwari's death should be thoroughly investigated by a competent team of investigators.

Speaking to press persons here yesterday, Siddharamaiah dismissed BJP leaders claims that Anurag Tiwari had unearthed a multi-crore scam in the Food and Civil Supplies Department.

Pointing out that the post-mortem report had cited heart attack as the cause of the Karnataka cadre IAS officer's death, Siddharamaiah said that the Uttar Pradesh Government was probing the death and it (UP) was free to cover all allegations made by the IAS officer's family and Karnataka BJP leaders, in the investigation.

Tiwari, a 2007 batch IAS officer who was serving as Commissioner of the Food and Civil Supplies Department at Bengaluru, was found dead near a Government Guest house in Lucknow on his 36th birthday on Wednesday.

SIT PROBE

Speaking to press persons in Mysuru this morning, Siddharamaiah said that the UP Government had ordered a SIT probe into Tiwari's death and the State would fully co-operate with the investigation. Replying to former CM H.D. Kumaraswamy's charges that top officers were losing their lives under the Congress Government in the State, the CM said that it was the most irresponsible statement.

Advocates who argue in Kannada will be felicitated: Chief Minister

'Verdicts in High Court should also be in Kannada'

Bengaluru, May 20- Chief Minister Siddharamaiah yesterday said Kannada should be used in District Courts. "It would be good if it is used in the High Court as well," he said after honouring Judges who pronounced judgments in Kannada and Public Prosecutors who argued cases in Kannada in 2015-16 and 2016-17.

"Verdicts in the High Court should also be in the local language Kannada so that the litigants can understand easily," the CM said. Steps will be taken to remove technical shortcomings faced at present at High Court to pronounce the verdict in Kannada and Kannada Development Authority (KDA) will look into it and suggest ways to facilitate delivery of verdicts in Kannada language, he added.

He said that from next year, the Advocates who present their arguments in Kannada language will also be felicitated because it helps the Judge to write his verdict in the local language.

"At Government level, all steps will be taken and the Government will consider the recommendations of KDA in this regard," he said. Kannada has also acquired cultural status and the Government will strive for development of the language.

The Chief Minister, who had practiced as advocate before entering politics, said that he had also argued some cases in Kannada. Public Prosecutors and document maintainers who use Kannada language also should be recognised.

"It is important for clients to understand the judgment. Moreover, since the administrative language is Kannada, it is good if judgments, records and arguments are in that language."

Law Minister T.B. Jayachandra said that the Government prefers those who know Kannada in appointments to Courts.

Only 10 percent of the litigants go on appeal in High Court against the verdict of lower Courts and it is correct for lower Courts giving verdicts in Kannada language. During recruitment of staff for lower Courts also the Government will give preference to candidates who know Kannada, he said.

Around 69 Judges and 19 Prosecutors from various parts of the State had gathered at the event. They were given away a cash prize of Rs. 10,000 and a citation.

Three jailed for illegal sand mining

Mysuru, May 20 (SBD&DM)- The Principal District and Sessions Court has sentenced three persons, including an octogenarian, to jail in an illegal sand mining case reported in Hunsur.

The convicted have been identified as Vinay, 25, and Sagar, 28, of Kirijaji village in Hunsur taluk and Tractor Owner Abdul Latif Baig, 80, of Hunsur.

Vinay and Sagar had escaped, when the Hunsur Police intercepted the Tractor in which they were illegally transporting sand from Lakshman Teertha River bed near Hunsur town on Aug, 28, 2015.

Later, the Police also booked Tractor owner Abdul Latif Baig for encouraging the duo into the unlawful activity.

Hunsur Police had filed charge-sheet against the three.

The Principal District and Session Court Judge P.G.M. Patil, who heard the case yesterday, convicted the accused. Vinay and Sagar were sentenced to one year in jail and fined Rs. 25,000 each for the offences committed under the provisions of Mines and Minerals Act and IPC, while Baig was sentenced to 6 months in jail and fined of Rs. 25,000.

Judge P.G.M. Patil announced the sentence after rejecting the pleas of then convicts for leniency, saying that the offence they had committed was serious in nature and there is a Supreme Court directive to treat cases of theft of natural resources seriously. Vinay had petitioned that he had to take care of his aged parents, while Sagar had claimed that he is poor and Baig had said that he was too old.

Public Prosecutor H.E. Chinnappa argued on behalf of the State.

Nagu-Magu ambulance with sirens blaring for carrying wedding party!

Mysuru, May 20 (SP&NNN)- Ambulances blaring with sirens and driven at breakneck speed has become a common sight in all metro and tier two cities. The Government has also come forward in providing free ambulance service under the Arogya Kavacha scheme — popularly known as 108 ambulances. Later, a facility Nagu-Magu ambulance, was also introduced, to provide drop-back facility for post-natal mothers and new born from Government health facilities to their residence.

The intention of the Government is always good but how good are the people entrusted with the responsibility of using or providing the facility. Here is a classic case of misuse of as serious a facility as the ambulance meant only for emergency service.

The pharmacist Beula of the Government Primary Health Centre, ICTC Lakshmidevamma Shankar Shetty Maternity Hospital in VV Puram, it is learnt, was celebrating the wedding of her daughter at a private resort on Metagalli road. The doctors and the staff of the hospital, it is learnt used the Nagu-Magu ambulance, KA 09 G 730, at their disposal for attending the wedding. Not only did they use it but it is said that they returned in the same ambulance using siren meant only for emergencies, violating the rules of ambulance usage.

It is said that Administrative Officer of the hospital Malathi had given permission to use the ambulance. At this time for nearly three hours except the patients there was no staff in the hospital. A few of the patients who brought the issue to the notice of Star of Mysore said that there was no one to attend to the patients in case of emergencies. The ambulance meant to drop the post-natal mothers, 48 hours after the delivery to their residence, being misused, has caused resentment among the public.

The ambulance parked at the wedding venue.

Meanwhile, District Health Officer Dr. B. Basavaraju speaking to Star of Mysore said, "I do not have any information about the Government ambulance service Nagu-Magu being used to attend wedding function. If it comes to my notice I will take serious action against them."

Ch. Hill entry ban unfair

...but we brought it upon ourselves

Ah! How can anyone not love that drive up Chamundi Hill late at night. And the view from atop, which is a sight to behold as our city shines beneath us reminding us how lucky we are... Well, from now on we will not have this reminder as the district administration has banned all entry up Chamundi Hill after 10 pm up till 5 am. It's unfortunate. But we have brought it upon ourselves.

First, why did the administration ban entry? Well, it seems while some enjoy the glorious view and the cool breeze caressing their face, others are just busy caressing each other in full public view. Also some others open up a 'Car-o-bar' and play loud music and dance. But this has been the case for decades. So what's changed? The Policing style has changed.

Earlier, the Police did a fine job of patrolling and making sure everyone on the Hill behaved if they wanted to continue enjoying the Hill late at night. Now they are not. The problem is people these days take the Police patrol casually. Earlier, if anyone saw a jeep headlight, even if it was not Police Garuda vehicle, they would become respectful and straighten up. Now they prepare themselves to 'negotiate.'

Just because the Police and the administration cannot effectively regulate and patrol the Hill does not mean you ban entry. Why must a whole population be deprived the joys of a night drive because of a few bad citizens? Instead punish and levy heavy fines effectively and people will behave.

Also the reason for which the administration wants to ban entry to the Hill happens every day at numerous parks in and around the city. No person in his right mind would dare enter Curzon Park and Kuppanna Park after dark... unless you want to get high or are already high. In fact, Parks in residential areas are "hot beds" of lovers...literally. So should we ban entry to Parks after sunset?

Now, while banning entry to the Hill after 10 pm, may be the administration can also ban people from building ugly and illegal structures along the way to the Hill. Ban the stores selling fake Mysore Silk sarees and sandalwood items, ban tourists from treating the foothill area as changing area in the morning and a lunch area in the afternoon. These things have to be banned or else the whole Hill will be a mess like the area around Mysore Palace.

While we are disappointed that we cannot go up the Hill whenever we want, we Mysureans have brought this upon ourselves with our bad behaviour. In fact, we Indians do not know how to enjoy nature, let alone respect it.

Even the morning walkers up Chamundi Hill, who claim to love "nature," play loud music at 5.30 am on their phone instead of just enjoying the chirping of birds and the breeze; nature's music. Even the pilgrims who come to the abode of Goddess Chamundeshwari, whose blessings they seek, don't think twice before dirtying her abode as they throw everything from sanitary napkins to plastic bottles.

When it comes to nature we have complete disregard and disrespect. See how we behave in National Parks. We don't keep distance from the wild animals; in fact we behave like animals by making wild gestures and sounds to get their attention. We get out of our cars to take pictures when numerous hoardings along the road have told us that it's unsafe to do so. We feed wild animals when we have been specifically told not to.

We just don't know how to respect the law, love nature or adore God. So a frustrated district administration and Police force, which is short staffed, cannot deal with an irresponsible citizenry and so ban orders seems like the best solution. But it's an unfair solution. It's a case of "just because you have a cold cut off the nose" kind of solution because people will find a place to enter the Hill.

Now, we wonder how effective this ban will be because since two years there is a ban that does not allow vehicles up the Hill after 11 pm. But that was ineffective. So how effective will this new ban be? But for now, it's very unfair that just because the Police can't be efficient in patrolling the Hill and dealing with a few bad people, a whole population is deprived of one of the most beautiful views of nature.

Weekend STAR Supplement

Mysuru Saturday 20th May 2017

Vajrotsava

It is during the month of May every year that Avadhoota Datta Peetham wears a festive look with the Ashrama hosting a number of events to mark Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji's birthday celebrations. This year, it is more special as the Ashrama will be celebrating Vajrotsava, the 75th birthday of Sri Swamiji. The Ashrama has organised various cultural and spiritual events and social services during the eight-day mega event starting from May 21 (tomorrow).

This Weekend Star Supplement is dedicated to Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji and the Ashrama which has been guiding its devotees towards spirituality and harmony.

STAR OF MYSORE Saturday 20th May 2017 Weekend STAR Supplement Page-11

Celebrating 75th birthday of Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji

The 41ft monolith statue of Lord Hanuman stands as a sentinel to Datta Venkateshwara Temple at the Ashrama.

Shuka Vana

Shuka Vana is one of the most visited places in the ashrama. Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji, who is known for his compassion, established Shuka Vana, a rehabilitation centre for birds. The centre houses a number of exotic birds which have been brought from the various parts of the world. Most importantly, Shuka Vana provides shelter for injured and uncared birds.

The Shuka Vana is a distinctive aviary where one gets the most astonishing opportunity of being in the divine presence of the living, breathing deity that presides over one's own zodiac sign and a parrot that represents one's planet and birth date. Here you will find the parrot that stands as a symbol for each day of the month as well. It is of great benefit to individuals to view these rare birds. Offering services to the parrot such as feeding, housing, training and health maintenance will enhance both the individual's worldly and spiritual lives.

The aviary is spread across one acre and houses around 468 species of birds among which many are listed as endangered or critically endangered. Shuka Vana is home for some of the bird species such as the African Love birds, African greys, Blue-naped Parrots, Caiques, Cockatoos, Conures, Lorikeets and Macaws.

Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji is seen feeding the Hyacinth Macaws at the Shuka Vana in the Ashrama premises.

By S.N. Venkatnag Sobers

Among the prominent spiritual centres in the country is the famous Avadhoota Datta Peetham located on Ooty Road in Mysuru. It was in the year 1966 that Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji came to the city and established the Ashrama. In the early days, the ashrama worked in a small hut and now it has grown up to become one of the prominent spiritual centres having its branches spread across various parts of the world.

Though, Swamiji started the spiritual centre in a small hut, it was in Mysuru that he achieved more divine powers through his continuous penance and became Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji. As popularity of Swamiji spread, people from different walks of life started visiting the Avadhoota Datta Peetham.

Apart from taking spiritual guidance, devotees come to hear Swamiji's compositions and also to celebrate festivals in ancient traditions. His disciples, who belong to all walks of life from a common man to top politicians, come to him for attaining peace.

Over the past few decades Swamiji has inspired many of his devotees to start charitable institutions, educational institutions, relief camps for poor and Annadanam (free feeding centres) across the globe including in countries such as Trinidad, Venezuela, Peru and others.

Swamiji, who has mastered music, has written more than 2,000 songs in Sanskrit, Kannada, Telugu and Hindi in praise of various deities. His devotees do not miss out a chance to listen to his songs whenever they get a chance. This apart, the bhajans organised by Swamij attracts thousands of devotees who gather in large numbers at the ashrama and its centres in various parts of the world. Swamiji's compositions include, Sachchidananda Neeti Mala, Chutuku Sahitya, Vedanta Geetalu in Sanskrit, Kannada and Telugu.

About Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji

Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji, the pontiff of Avadhoota Datta Peetham, was born at Mekedatu on May 26, 1942 on a rock located in the River Cauvery. Swamiji's mother Jayalakshmi Mata was in deep meditation when the child was born covered with holy ash.

The purvashrama name of Swamiji was Satyanarayana. As a child, Swamiji, was guided to spiritual life by his mother, who passed away in 1951. After completing his studies, the young Satyanarayana decided to go in search of spiritual attainment. He organised satsangs and even taught bhajans to his friends. It is said that a Muslim Saint had predicted to Swamiji's parents, Narasimha Shastry and Jayalakshmi, that their son would become a spiritual master and work for the betterment of mankind.

The prediction turned out to be true as Satyanarayana became a Saint serving fellow human beings and also guiding them towards spiritual path. Sri Ganapathy Sachchidananda Swamiji has travelled across the globe to preach about God consciences and coexistence. A disciple of Lord Dattatreya and great follower of Sanathana Dharma, Swamiji has toured the length and breadth of our country, establishing various branches of the Ashrama, called as Gnana Bodha Sabhas.

Each of the Ashrama branches has temple for Lord Dattatreya, Annapoorna Mandira (Free Feeding Hall), Community Hall for bhajans, prayers, meditation and a charitable clinic.

Till date, Swamiji has consecrated more than 80 branches in India including 16 Ashramas dedicated to the 16 incarnations of Lord Dattatreya, Datta Kasi, Datta Rameshwaram, 9 Kshetras dedicated to Navanathas, Sripadavallabha Anagha Datta Kshetram in Pithapuram (AP) dedicated to Sri Padavallabha Swamy, the first incarnation of Datta in Kaliyuga and Sri Narasimha Saraswati Guru Paduka Kshetram dedicated to Swamy Narasimha Saraswati in Ganagapura (KA). This apart, Swamiji has also established 15 spiritual centres at UK, USA, Malaysia, Europe, Trinidad, Canada and Australia.

Viswa Manava Dharma

Swamiji always emphasised on practising humanity. Which is why he became a upasaka of Lord Dattatreya, who transcends all man-made barriers of caste and religion. "People come to me because officers fail them," Siddu

The public are facing problems in the Tahsildar's Office, with the Police and the Revenue Department the most. The standard reply given by the officers is, "It does not come under our jurisdiction and pass the buck. Instead if they make extra efforts to guide the public and give them relief, the officer will have truly discharged his duty," the CM told the officers.

Siddharamaiah was in his elements and driving home his point, he quoted a Kannada proverb, "Geddavanu Sotha, Sothavanu Satta," (a reference to those who go to Court for justice. It means: "The one who wins loses and the one who loses is dead.") and said that is situation, especially the farmers are facing. He asked the officers to do proper survey of the land and give the farmers sketches of the land whenever they apply, instead of harassing them.

Soon after, the address, the BEML workers came with a memorandum asking the Chief Minister to interfere immediately to save the public sector company going into private hands. He assured them that he would talk to the minister concerned.

About eight physically-challenged persons — Asgar, Jagadish, Siddappaji, Shazuddin, Mariswamy, Dilip Kumar, Venkob Rao and Gopalkrishna all running petty shops in the City bus stand appealed to the CM to solve their problem. They complained that their livelihood had been destroyed as the police and the corporation authorities were not allowing them to run their business and filed cases against them.

Siddharamaiah asked both the Police and the Corporation Commissioner to solve their problem by providing them proper places to carry out their business. If it was not possible for them to do it then he would take up the cause, he cautioned.

A middle-aged man, A.S. Shivanna from Siddharamaiahnahundi (CM's village) who had passed SSLC, requested the CM for a Government job. The CM replied, "Not just me, even God cannot help you to get a Government job at this age. Let me see if I can fix you a job in Bannari Amman Sugar factory if you are ready to work there."

The parents of the boy who had died in the mystery fire mishap at Shayadanahall in Belavatta were given a cheque of Rs. 2 lakh by the CM.

District Minister Dr H.C.Mahadevappa, Health Minister U.T. Khader, MLAs Vasu and G.T. Devegowda, Regional Commissioner M.V. Jayanthi, DC D. Randeep, Corporation Commissioner G. Jagadeesha, MUDA Commissioner Dr. M. Mahesh, ZP CEO Shivashankar, Tahsildar T. Ramesh and other District Officers were present. The CM will hold a review meeting later in the afternoon with the officers.

CM to contest from Chamundeshwari

Mysuru, May 20- Chief Minister Siddharamaiah hinted that he will contest the 2018 Assembly elections from Chamundeshwari Constituency.

Speaking to press persons at Mandakalli Airport here this morning, Siddharamaiah, when asked about reports on him contesting from Koppal, said that he had lost the 1991 Lok Sabha polls from Koppal by a narrow margin. "I have only expressed my desire to contest from there as the people had appealed to me," he said.

6-laning of Mysuru-Bengaluru Road

PWD Minister Dr. H.C. Mahadevappa said that the NHAI (National Highways Authority of India) has been entrusted with the responsibility of upgrading the 9-km stretch of Ring Road from Hinkal junction to Columbia Asia Hospital junction, linking with NH-175, at a cost of Rs. 82 crore.

Likewise, the 16-km stretch of the Ring Road from Columbia Asia Hospital junction to Nanjangud Road junction will be upgraded at a cost of Rs. 95 crore, he said and added that the works on the 6-laning of Mysuru-Bengaluru Road will commence by the end of this month.

Certificates distributed to YHAI bikers

Mysuru, May 20 (PM&DM)- Certificates were distributed to 31 participants, who took part in the bike rally, organised by Youth Hostels Association of India (YHAI), with the theme 'Save water for the future' at a programme organised at YHAI premises in Gokulam 2nd Stage here this morning.

Mysuru Ramakrishna Ashrama's Swami Mokshaatmanandaji, speaking as the chief guest on the occasion, said that the bike rally with the theme 'Save Water' was very purposeful. Pointing out that only 7.5 percent of water available on land is fit for domestic use, the Swamiji explained the need for most judicious use of water, as water is becoming a scarce commodity with each passing day.

He highlighted the need for educating the public on various water conservation methods, with focus on rain water harvesting.

Former MLC D. Madegowda, who is also the YHAI State President, said that there were concerns over drawing up activities when the YHAI was opened here. But the concerns were soon addressed, with Mysuru and Shivamogga Units joining hands in taking up key issues involving the public, he said and added that YHAI - Mysuru has drawn up many purposeful programmes in the coming months.

YHAI State Working President Purushottam, Mysuru Unit President Ravi Kumar and others were present.

The bike rally, which was flagged off from the city on May 15, traversed through various places in Tamil Nadu and Kerala, before returning to the city this morning.

The rally was aimed at creating awareness on water conservation and its benefits to tourists and other members of the public.

UTTARAKHAND LANDSLIDES

45 Mandya pilgrims yet to reach Uttarakhand

CM promises all help to trapped Kannadigas

Mysuru, May 20 (BCT&MTY)- Even as more than 14,000 pilgrims were left stranded at various places in Chamoli district of Uttarakhand after a massive landslide blocked the Rishikesh-Badrinath highway yesterday afternoon, over 45 pilgrims have left Mandya for Uttarakhand for the Char Dham Yatra.

The Char Dham Yatra is a visit to Badrinath, Kedarnath, Gangothri and Yamunothri. The landslide which occurred in Hathi Parvat near Vishnuprayag, 9-km from Joshimath, left 60 metres of the national highway damaged but there were no reports of injury to pilgrims.

After the landslide, thousands of pilgrims were stopped in Govindghat, Joshimath and Pandukeshwar from moving ahead. They have been accommodated in nearby hotels, lodges and gurdwaras and guest houses. Around 11,000 pilgrims were at Badrinath for darshan at the time of the calamity.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, certain tour operators in Mandya said that the pilgrims left Mandya four days back in a train and they were yet to reach Uttarakhand.

Tour operators from Mysuru said that nobody from Mysuru went for the trip recently. "There have been no bulk trips. However, we have no idea if pilgrims went there individually or in small groups," a tour operator added.

It may be recalled here that in June 2013, about 36 people from H.D. Kote had left for 'kaashi yaatre' and were trapped in heavy rains in Haridwar to Gaurikund. All of them were rescued by the Army then and when they came back, pilgrims recounted the horror of being trapped in an unknown and a disaster-struck land.

CM ORDERS HELP

Chief Minister Siddharamaiah has said that people from the State who are trapped in Uttarakhand will be rescued and all help will be offered to them. "All help will be offered and I have already spoken to Chief Secretary Subhash Khuntia to ensure that devotees are taken care of," he told reporters in Mysuru today.

The CM added that as of now, there was no information about any devotee from Karnataka being trapped in Uttarakhand.

Mumbai Indians make it to finals

Bengaluru, May 20- The Mumbai Indians stormed their way to the IPL 2017 final defeating the Kolkata Knight Riders by six wickets in Qualifier 2 at the M. Chinnaswamy Stadium yesterday. After opting to bowl, the MI bowlers destroyed their opponents, bundling them out for 107, after which their batsmen chased down the runs in 14.3 overs. Karn Sharma was the destroyer for MI, while Krunal Pandya's performance stood out in the run-chase.

MI reaped the rewards for being aggressive at the start of the match. Mitchell Johnson, playing in place of the injured Mitchell McClenaghan, bowled a fiery first over and conceded only three runs. Jasprit Bumrah benefitted from the pressure built at the other end as Chris Lynn holed out to long-on in the second over. The other opener Sunil Narine and Gautam Gambhir struggled to get the ball of the square in the face of extremely disciplined bowling from MI. KKR were 22/1 after 4 overs.

In the fifth over, Narine attempted to break the shackles and charged out, not picking the googly, only to be stumped. Robin Uthappa was trapped leg before by Bumrah in the sixth over, while Gambhir was beaten in flight by Karn Sharma and picked out the man at midwicket. The very next delivery Colin de Grandhomme was dismissed for a first-ball duck. Only seven overs had been bowled and half the KKR line-up was back in the dressing room. KKR 31/5.

Ishan Jaggi and Suryakumar Yadav applied well and gave the innings some respectability with a 56-run partnership. The sixth wicket partnership was broken in the fifteenth over when Jaggi (28 from 31 balls) picked the fielder at long-on. KKR then slipped, losing four wickets in quick time including that of a well-set Yadav for 31 (25 balls, 2 fours, 1 six). They did not even bat out their twenty overs and were bundled out for 107.

On the bowling front, Karn Sharma and Jasprit Bumrah were sensational and did the bulk of the damage; while the leg-spinner Karn returned figures of 4-16, Bumrah, playing his 100th T20 match, returned career-best figures of 3/7.

MI had a rough start to their chase; Lendl Simmons didn't pick a googly from Piyush Chawla and played down the wrong line to be dismissed LBW, while Parthiv Patel edged a wide delivery to the wicketkeeper in the third over. MI were reduced to 34/3 when Ambati Rayudu too played down the wrong line and lost his off peg to Chawla.

But skipper Rohit Sharma and Krunal Pandya settled the nerves with a 54-run partnership that took MI to the brink; the latter was the more aggressive batsman, contributing 34 runs in the fourth wicket stand. Rohit (26) hit two pleasing strokes in his 24-ball outing, one a cover drive and a six over long-on – before pulled a Nathan Coulter-Nile delivery to the man at square-leg.

Krunal stayed on and completed the job; he hit eight boundaries in his 28-ball 45 and duly scored the winning runs. As a result of this convincing win, MI progress to the tournament final where they will meet Rising Pune Supergiant at Hyderabad May 21 (tomorrow).

U-17 Football World Cup 2017

Indian colts defeat Italy in a friendly

Arizo (Italy), May 20- The India U-17 World Cup Squad stunned their Italian counterparts 2-0 in Arizo, Italy yesterday. The win epitomises the grit and determination of the Indian Colts who have been grinding together since February 2013.

Strikes by Abhijit Sarkar (31) and Rahul Praveen (80) led their team to a massive win over the Azzuri in a match largely dominated by the Indian Colts in terms of possession and chances created. India got off the blocks and gave the opposition a tough time.

Komal Thatal's 8th minute strike went whiskers past the Italian custodian as India hunted in packs for an early lead. In the 13th minute, Aniket came close to opening the goal scoring charts for India but his effort went straight down the keepers throat resulting in an easy save.

In the 31st minute, however, the goal for the India came when Sarkar's cross took a wicked deflection off the Italian defence line and ended up in the back of the opposition net.

After India led 1-0 at half-time, the Colts searched to extend the their lead and safeguard the result. In 59th minute, Aniket missed a one versus one chance against Italian goalkeeper after he rounded the opposition custodian up but failed to convert.

Rahul in the 75th minute came close to scoring when he failed to tap the ball home from handshaking distance after Aniket's shot had earned an uncanny save by the Italian custodian.

Goal scoring chances every now and then had to bear fruits and it did for India in the 80th minute when Rahul scored from inside the box to double India's lead.

Rajinikanth says he is true Tamilian

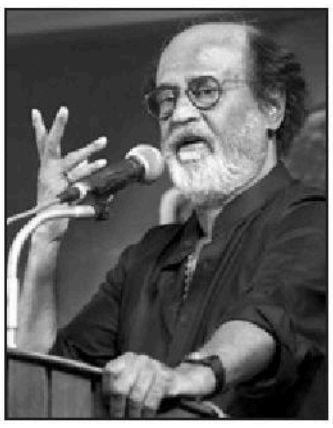
Chennai, May 20- Superstar Rajinikanth said that he is a true Tamilian while interacting with his fans in Chennai yesterday.

The superstar said that he had lived in Karnataka for 23 years and in Tamil Nadu for 43 years. Rajinikanth said that though he hails from Karnataka, fans have welcomed him and made him true Tamilian.

Notably, Rajinikanth yesterday had declined to answer any political questions, amid speculation over his possible political plunge. Sources said that Rajinikanth asked the reporters not to ask him political questions at the end of his interaction. Expressing joy over meeting his fans after an eight-year gap, the actor said that the next round of meeting with his fans will be finalised in the coming days.

He had said that he had no desire to join politics, but if he did, he would show the door to all "money-minded" people. "My life is in the hands of God. I'm not sure what he has in store for me. But I will always perform the duty that he bestows on me. So, don't feel disappointed if I don't enter politics," he had told his fans in Chennai.

But if he did join politics, he would ensure that there would be no place for those seeking material gain. "Money-minded people will be shunned. So, I warn you now itself to stay away," he had said.



Yesterday, BJP National Secretary H. Raja had said that Rajinikanth is a 'popular' personality and is welcome to join the saffron party.

Interestingly, his name was also mentioned in some quarters for the office of the President of India which falls vacant this year.

"Parvathamma has shown improvement since last night and has been responding to treatment well. She is still on life support and not completely out of danger and the next 24 hours will be critical," said Dr. Naresh Shetty, President of M.S. Ramaiah Hospital.

The Hospital has stopped the dialysis following improvement in her renal functioning. Actors Raghavendra Rajkumar, Shivrajkumar and Puneeth Rajkumar have requested people not take the rumours about their mother's passing away seriously. They said that the condition of her health remained same as yesterday.

Parvathamma was admitted to the Hospital last week after she complained about respiratory problems. She had recently recovered from breast cancer and currently the veteran producer is said to be undergoing treatment for liver, lungs and kidneys complications.

The Cult of Lord Narasimha

It was a pleasant surprise that on Tuesday (9.5.2017) all the TV channels beamed only the programmes celebrating the birth (Jayanti) of Lord Narasimha. Actually, the programmes were there from early morning till late in the night. In fact I and my family were glued to the TV as we did not like to miss any item beamed.

Another unique feature was that practically all temples of South India comprising Karnataka, Andhra and Tamil Nadu were shown on the TV. I felt that the whole of South India had become the abode of Narasimha. Even a historian like me forgot history and chronology and was concentrating on the temples and images. Some of them I had visited long back and many were new to me. Our family had a special devotion to God Narasimha and naturally we were absorbed in this devotion.

God's incarnation is a unique concept in our tradition and culture. It assures the tormented or troubled person a hope and assurance that justice would be done to good people and wicked people would be punished. All our epics are good examples for this unique concept and that is the reason why our epics are still alive and not obsolete literary works.

Coming back to the concept of incarnation it has to be noted that the first three are related to animals and the fourth one is a combination of animal and human and from that point of view of history, this concept was not known during the Indus Valley Civilisation. It is found mentioned in Taittirya Aranyaka, a part of Vedic literature. There is an Upanishad called Mahanarayana Upanishad and Narasimha is mentioned in this text. In course of time, many Upanishads developed around Narasimha. In one of these Upanishads, Mahavishnu is called as Narasimha and this shows the supremacy of this God as early as when this literature was composed.

Mahabharata has a reference to God Narasimha. In fact a work called Mansu Sukta is an authentic source for understanding the concept of this God. A large number of Puranas refer to the details of this God and this shows that he had become a popular and important deity in the early period. Other Puranas like Matsya, Vayu, Brahmanda, Agni, Padma and Vishnudharmottara contain details of the concept of Narasimha. These are dated to about 4th century AD in both North and South India. The great Alwars of South India have sung in praise of Lord Narasimha.

However, the most important and popular verses in favour of God Narasimha were composed by Adi Shankaracharya. They are popularly known as Karavalambana stotra and are recited even today in temples and homes on the Narasimha Jayanti day. Sri Ramanujacharya was also a devotee of Lord Narasimha and he encouraged many kings like Hoysala Vishnuvardhana to build temples for Narasimha. Another saint Sri Madhwacharya also popularised the worship of Narasimha.

Before proceeding further, we may refer to the mythological story of the emergence of Lord Narasimha. This story is quite popular and Hiranyakasipu assumes importance in this. With the blessings of Lord Shiva, Hiranyakasipu began a great penance. Narada wanted to thwart this plan and in the form of a sparrow uttered the name of Narayana and Hiranyakasipu lost concentration and could not complete his penance. He returned to his Palace. In course of time, Prahlada was born and he was always uttering the name of Narayana and Hiranyakasipu became angry and even asked his soldiers to kill him.

All these were done but Sri Hari saved Prahlada each time and Hiranyakasipu became helpless but his wrath against Vishnu increased. The snakes that came there to bite Prahlada became harmless; when he was tossed from the hill tip, he was not even hurt and escaped as a flower. Thus Narayana was saving his devotee from the cruelty of Hiranyakasipu. The latter could not tolerate all these things and one day he called Prahlada and said if your Narayana is all powerful let him come and save you now. He showed a pillar and asked if your Narayana is available in this pillar, let him come out and save you my son. Otherwise I myself will kill you.

Without waiting Narasimha broke the stone pillar and came forward and carried Hiranyakasipu and placed him on the threshold (hosilu of the Palace) which was neither inside nor outside; the time was neither day nor night; and Narasimha carried him on his lap and opened his belly. He did not use any weapons but used his nails only and killed the demon Hiranyakasipu.

Devout Prahlada requested Narasimha to calm down and give darshan to him in his peaceful attitude. Everybody in heaven felt very happy as also people all over various worlds. They all thanked Prahlada because of whom a bad demon was killed and Dharma was established. In fact the motto of any civilised society is to free the world of wicked people and protect good people. This was our tradition and it was fulfilled in ample measure.

In our tradition God is one but he assumes different names and roles while protecting people. Ahobila or Ahobala is a kshetra par excellence for Narasimha worship. It is in Kurnool of Andhra. There are at least fifty forms of Lord Narasimha depending upon the objects he holds in his hands and the feats he performs. Our own city has many temples of Narasimha: one is in Jayalakshmipuram guided by Sri Karagam Yoga Narasimham and the other is in Vijayanagar developed by Dr. Bhashyam Swamiji. Another one is on Ramavilasa Road called Ahobila Narasimha temple. One more is in Srirampura.

Hampi is famous for huge Narasimha temple and the image. Lord Narasimha made an impact on many dynasties including the Mysore royal family. Many kings had the name Narasimha as part of their names. Hoysalas, Vijayanagar rulers, Mysore Wadiyars minted coins in gold and silver with the portrait of Narasimha. We had a Prime Minister by name Narasimha Rao. Thus we show respect to this God in a variety of ways.

Though Narasimha flourished in a different yuga, he is relevant even today. That is the strength of our tradition which is greatly required at present.

No more official cars

for MCC Committee Chairpersons

State Government withdraws facility following Nandeesh Preetham's expose

Mysuru, May 20 (RK&BCT)- Henceforth, no elected representative in the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) except for the Mayor and Deputy Mayor can use official cars. The State Government has passed an order withdrawing the facility that was being used by the Leader of Opposition and Chairpersons of various Standing Committees.

In an order passed on May 6, the Director, Directorate of Municipal Administration, Bengaluru, has written to the Commissioners of Mysuru, Hubballi-Dharwad, Mangaluru, Tumakuru, Shivamogga, Davanagere, Belagavi, Vijayapura, Kalaburagi and Ballari City Corporations to immediately withdraw the vehicle facility.

It may be recalled here that Nandeesh Preetham, Chairperson, MCC's Standing Committee on Town Planning and Improvement, had on May 3 raised the issue of the free car facility offered to Standing Committee Chairpersons and the Leader of Opposition. He had said that the MCC was paying lakhs of rupees as rent to the cars though there is no provision for such a facility under the Karnataka Municipal Act.

After sparking off the debate, Nandeesh surrendered the official car given to him and sought a clarification from the Authorities over the eligibility to use official cars.

In a letter to Mayor M.J. Ravikumar, Preetham said that he will start using the car only if the Government clarifies on the issue and even offered to pay back his car rentals.

Nandeesh Preetham

After this, Nandeesh and Chairman of Audit Standing Committee Seema Prasad had written to the MCC Commissioner seeking clarification on the usage of their cars. Seema Prasad too had surrendered the vehicle. Following this, MCC Commissioner had sent the letters and his observations to the Directorate of Municipal Administration seeking a clarification.

In its order, the Directorate has said that though the posts of Chairpersons of the Standing Panels of the Civic Body are statutorily created, there is no law permitting the persons occupying them to enjoy the facility of an official car at the cost of tax payer's money.

Terming Nandeesh Preetham's and Seema Prasad's move to return the cars as a model step to save public money, the order said that henceforth, only Mayor and Deputy Mayor who are 'eligible functionaries' will get the car facility. No other elected representative will have such facility, the order stated.

'WILL CONTINUE MY CRUSADE'

Speaking to Star of Mysore this morning, Nandeesh Preetham said that the Government move to withdraw car facility was a huge victory to the tax payers. "My stand has been vindicated. I will continue my fight against misuse of public money at the MCC," he said.
